

Fix Your Eyes On Jesus

Deborah Ann Belka

Fix your eyes on Jesus,
never let Him out of your sight
focus in on all of the goodness that radiates from His light.

Fasten your mind to Jesus,
in His Word find your peace
join together with Him in a love that will never cease.

Attach your heart to Jesus,
cling and cleave to His life secure yourself in the knowledge
He came to overcome your strife.

Glue your ears to Jesus,
listen to what He has to say
stick to His commandments and let your heart to Him sway.

Fix your eyes on Jesus,
never let Him out of your sight
focus in on all His goodness and trust Him with all your might!

Today's Scripture
Reading: Hebrews 3: 1-6

welcome!

We're glad you're here today. We're a group of people learning what it means to be followers of Jesus. This is a place where everyone is welcome, nobody's perfect, and anything is possible. We welcome and encourage you to share your life with us as we journey in faith together.

What can you expect on a Sunday morning? Our worship services aim to be about 70 minutes long, with a mix of praise singing & prayer, and a time of inspiration and learning through the teaching that explores scripture, and issues of everyday life.

We believe that by working together, sharing our faith and our lives, we can accomplish much more than we could individually. With God's help and the power of the Holy Spirit, we believe we can transform our community and our world as the hands and feet of Jesus on earth.

If you're ready for us to get to know you, please fill out a "Welcome" card from the pew and bring it to the Connection Point in the foyer after the service. We hope you too will find a place of belonging here, and share your life and faith journey with us.

Room for a student? Stephano Masaro is a 22 year old student who needs a place to stay in Burlington. He was a government sponsored refugee who came to Canada from Malawi, with his two brothers (24 & 20) and one sister (18). They were settled in London, and became active at Royal View Pentecostal Church. Stephano became active in the music team; now has come to Burlington, studying to be a paramedic at Oxford College. He cannot afford a full apartment, so is looking to rent a room in a home. Through his minister and worship team leader, we have references available. Might you or someone you know be able to consider renting him a room for his school semester (4 months)? E-mail Orville for more info.

Observer Magazine | Please note that the cost of the Observer subscription is $25 per year. If you wish to renew your subscription or start a new one, you can pay for it by using a blue pew envelope and writing Observer on the envelope with your contact information by Sunday April 15th.

Fellowship Lunch | Please join us Sunday, March 18th, after the 11am service. Tickets are $10 each and can be purchased at the door.

Staff Notes | Rev. Orville James will be away from March 5th - 12th. Rev. Katie Southon is available during this time for any pastoral needs.

Follow the exploits of Maviah, disgraced daughter of a Bedouin Sheikh who sold her into slavery in Egypt as a child. As an adult she has again disgraced her father by having a child out of wedlock. She is sent into the desert to die but makes it to the Oasis along the Spice Route controlled by her father who again rejects her.

She is sent on a quest full of danger with her father's 2 most loyal men. Her destination: Herod Antipas and on to Rome. Her encounter with YESHUA teaches her that anger is really about fear. Only love and forgiveness can help her conquer her fears and help her trust in His Light.

“Beyond” the House-Build...

For over 10 years, the Wellington Square congregation has participated and supported YUGO ministries, in their house ministry program. This project is a valuable "hand-up" that builds a deeper relationship with Christ for everyone involved.

The 2017 Mission Experience explored the possibility of going deeper and doing more while in Mexico. We have expanded our partnership, with the local church, to identify areas where we can provide additional support and encouragement in a sustainable way.

In addition to funding feeding programs, food baskets, medical and maternal programs, we are open to exploring additional opportunities, to aid families who are struggling to break-out of the cycle of poverty.

Recently, we purchased an egg incubator that is awaiting delivery to a family, who we built for in 2015. Our family is unable to work, at traditional employment, due to health reasons. He had hoped to raise and sell chickens, and their eggs, to provide a sustainable income for his family. We are eagerly waiting to hear how this pilot-project progresses, with possible plans to expand it to other families.

Friday Community

One of our moms with a number of children passed me her $25 gift card that came with the Loblaws rebate program for us to use to purchase much needed items for Friday Night Community. We thanked her and she shared that she sent in for it to give back, and that they do their best, love helping when they can and she appreciates that we help every week with her kids' snacks. Regardless of how much or how little we have, it feels good to give and share the resources that God has provided for us.

We enjoyed our speaker, Bart Campbell from COAST (Crisis Outreach and Support Team) who shared about how to help someone in crisis. He suggested that empathy is essential to support and care for others and allows us to truly grow in friendship and care for others.

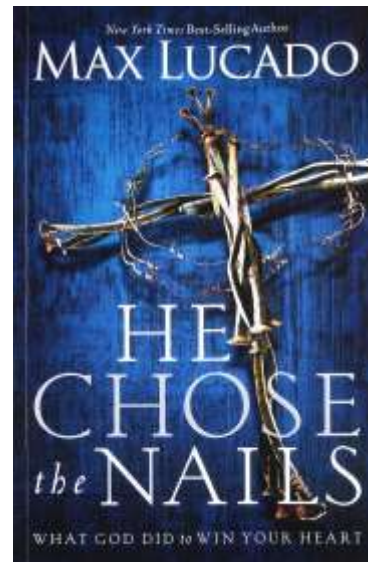

Blessings of goodness:

- *our friend Robin who comes every Friday to help with the food pick up, set up the dining room and organize for the dinner

Most Needed Items:

- *yogurt, sour cream and black take out containers for our food to take home
- *Easter treats for Good Friday dinner
- *hand mixer for baking
- *salad bar items (pickles, olives, beets, salad dressings, Craisins, etc.)
- *decaf coffee
