

Service Times Trial Extension

The Board has decided to extend the secondary service times trial into the spring, with the Gathering (Contemporary) service at 9:30am and the Traditional service at 11am.

This extension will allow opportunities for more data collection, as well as time for the congregation to adjust to a new minister. We will continue to seek feedback before a more permanent time is selected.